

Autobiography

Autobiography was first published in 1947 and was described by J. B. Priestley as one of the best pieces of writing that ever found a way to our Book Society. He is a writer who has learned how to write and the result is glorious. Sir Neville Cardus is best remembered as a writer on both cricket and music and during his lifetime achieved an unparalleled reputation as one of England's greatest journalists on these two very different subjects. Born in Rusholme in Manchester Cardus carved out an international reputation for himself by his own ability, efforts and imagination and created, as his biographer Christopher Brookes put it, a beguiling personal legend in the course of a career which extended over fifty years. This is a very, very good book. Cricket and music - how he makes both these worlds pulsate, life comic as well as life magnificent. Robert Lynd's superb work by a master of English. Wilfred Pickles
