

Caramelle: Metamorphosis (Volume 2)

The second part of the saga. Generational curses. Strongholds. History repeating itself. Will a young woman and her family in modern times escape from a downward spiral of sin and degradation? 20-year-old Stephanie Renee Bell, author of this trilogy, takes you on the second part of this riveting journey filled with vividly-detailed, intense, unforgettable characters painted with lush imagery, masterfully woven through the vast tapestry of time. Chapter I

Her name is Caramelle, the woman spoke up for her daughter when she remained coyly silent, with a double l and another e on the end. The kind sidewalk artist smiled, sketching the name into the picture.

Thats a beautiful name, he commented, and Caramelle smiled shyly as she held tightly to her mothers hand. And heres a beautiful painting for a beautiful girl, he added, handing Caramelle the canvas, on which there was a watercolor collage of pinks, browns and maroons forming graceful flowers...
