

The Cow Pie Story

Kristin Murdock could be called the worlds only entre-manure, after finding great success in turning cow dung into fun creations. It all started while hiking near Lake Powell, Utah, when she stumbled upon a batch of old sun-dried cow droppings. What a great gag gift for the person who has everything, she thought. She gathered a few, lacquered and drilled holes in them, and stuffed them with a battery powered clock. Quite accidentally, Donny Osmond saw one and featured it on the Donny and Marie TV talk show. A business was born! Enjoy this inspirational story told with heart, humor and honesty as she shares her cowpie journey.
