

Gifted

This play is written uniquely with a poetic prologue performed in form of some soft music using instruments like local drums, bamboo flutes, etc. Throughout the poetic-comedy, the audience will learn something about the major problems facing Africa and the world at large. Societal problems ranging from the outright rejection of disabled ones, the elevation of physical beauty, wealth over virtue, certain horrible African traditions, to terrorism and human trafficking are all outlined in this drama. And those who carry out such vices are called foes of civilization.
