

Grandmaster Repertoire 11 - Beating 1.d4 Sidelines

Most players are comfortable using their favourite defence against 1.d4 followed by c2-c4, but it is not always easy to find an antidote to the many sidelines at Whites disposal. From the bodacious Blackmar-Diemer Gambit, to the villainous Veresov, to fiendish fianchetto systems to the treacherous Trompowsky, Black must be ready to meet a whole array of slippery systems, each bringing its own unique dangers and challenges. Grandmaster Repertoire 11 - Beating 1.d4 Sidelines provides a sound and active repertoire against virtually every non-standard opening line at Whites disposal after both 1.d4 d5 and 1.d4 Nf6. Where applicable, Avrukh covers each white system after both 2...e6 and 2...g6, making this book suitable for fans of the Nimzo-Indian, Kings Indian and Grunfeld defences alike. Hundreds of Novelties Thorough coverage of virtually all relevant lines and move orders Compatible with all major defences after both 1.d4 d5 and 1.d4 Nf6 Boris Avrukh is a grandmaster from Israel. He is an Olympiad gold medallist, former World Junior Champion and analysis partner of World Championship finalists. Avrukhs previous Grandmaster Repertoire books on 1.d4 and the Grunfeld received universal rave reviews, and won the ChessPublishing.com Book of the Year award in both 2010 and 2011.
