

Le Passage

Bernadette Meunier wrote Le Passage From Scott Street to Timbuktu as a reflection of her life in the Temiskaming district and her world travels. She provides her own family history and French Canadian perspectives of the early days in Hudson and Diamond Townships and the Tri-Towns. Early pioneer life of the Tessier and Gauvreau families is documented as generations evolved in and around the Tri-Towns. As the longest residing resident of Scott Street in New Liskeard, Bernadette has watched the world change from her front porch. From that little porch, as life would have it, Bernadette chose to expand her horizons and travel the world. She took the advice of many people and actually went to Timbuktu, as well as Venice, Rome, Paris, London, Cairo, Beijing, Bangkok, Tokyo, San Francisco, Peggys Cove, Vancouver, St. Johns, Vienna and Amsterdam, to name a few. Le Passage was written with the idea of providing a time capsule of life in the Tri-Towns and beyond, through the eyes and memories of a great-grandmother.
