

Kids? Advice from Parents on Having Children

Do you know someone thinking about having kids? Are you wondering how your life will change with kids? Have you recently had a child and walk around sleep deprived wondering what just happened? If so, this book is for you to lighten the mood.

This is a lighthearted book that pokes fun at having children. The goal is to make someone laugh when they open the book, only to find that the advice from parents is NOT to have kids! Spelled out on over 100 pages is the advice: Don't do it. Save tons of money. Get restful sleep. Travel. Stay in Shape. The book can be a playful gift to new parents, those expecting kids, or those people that have had kids for years. Even better, poke fun at your own situation and give it to someone who is single! Have a laugh at some of those things that parents give up in the early years of having children. More books at www.laughoutloudbooks.com
