

The Collected Cinema Knife Fight Volume One (2004-2009) (Necon Non-Fiction)

If Siskel and Ebert had had a sardonic sense of humor and an obsession with the macabre, theyd have been Michael Arruda and L.L. Soares, whose column Cinema Knife Fight has been praised by luminaries like Craig Shaw Gardner, Philip Nutman, John Shirley and Gary Raisor. Now, their first five years of ping pong banter, random guest appearances, and insightful film critique are available here. This collection is a must have for all horror movie buffs ... especially those who, like Michael and L.L., appreciate the worst films of the genre almost as much as the best.
