

MAD About Politics: An Outrageous Pop-Up Political Parody

From the demented pages of MAD Magazine comes a depraved and uproarious look at contemporary politics juiciest scandals. Revel in the salacious animation of our fearless leaders most embarrassing moments. Hunt with Dick Cheney, learn how to spell with Dan Quayle, take speech lessons with George W. Bush, and find out why Alfred E. Neuman is running for President...again and again and again. Mad About Politics: A Pop-Up Book spares nothing at the expense of our elected officials, highlighting the unbearable truth about whos in charge. With precise pop-up ingenuity American power players have never looked so enjoyably foolish. If youre wondering who to vote for on Election Day let MAD About Politics give you some pointers. Suitable for the sardonic this tome of asinine political parody will have anyone with a sense of humor rolling in the aisles.
