

My Heart Wanders: A Celebration of Taking Risks, Letting Go and Making a Home Wherever You Are

A reflective and visually sumptuous memoir of one woman's search for home. What would happen if one day you decided to follow your heart? Where would it take you? Pia Jane Bijkerk takes us on her journey as she leaves behind a comfortable life in Sydney to follow, unconditionally, her instincts. Setting up home first in Paris, then on a houseboat in Amsterdam, Pia observes the serendipitous moments that present themselves when letting go and following one's dreams. My Heart Wanders is a reflective, inspirational, tender memoir that speaks to the wandering heart in all of us.
