

Virginia Marmaduke: A Journey in Print from Carbondale to Chicago (IL) (Voices of America)

Nicknamed The Duchess by a tongue-tied editor early in her career, Virginia Marmaduke is the First Lady of Chicago print journalism. She was the first woman to: cover both crime and sports for Windy City newspapers; be named (by Mayor Daley Sr.) to the Chicago Board of Health; be named Press Veteran of the Year by the Chicago Press Veterans Association; and to be inducted into Chicagos Journalism Hall of Fame. First with the Chicago Sun, then the Sun-Times and the Chicago Tribune, the Duchess newspaper career ran parallel to the 20th Century. She covered, as she called it, blood, guts and sex, as well as presidents, natural disasters, womens issues, and-notably-humanitarian causes. This volume, the first on the life and career of Virginia Marmaduke, reprints many of the famous articles from her Chicago heyday. Additionally, it documents her childhood in Carbondale, Illinois, her first newspaper job, and her return to Southern Illinois where she became a community booster, humanitarian, and beloved all-Illinoisian.
