

Shastras

Shastras is a stage play that presents a dialogue of enlightenment between four people - two men and two women - from four generations of wisdom - and four quadrants of the continent. Their conversation takes place when they meet within a House of Mirrors during a raging thunderstorm. Their karmic conversation tackles faith, hope, love, serendipity, intervention, divine synchronicity and people who alter our lives forever after our encounter with them. The book The Celestine Prophecy inspired this stage play as it tackles the illumination of spiritual enlightenment.
