

The Craft of Comedy (Techniques of Comedy Acting)

Described by The Oxford Companion to Theatre as essential for all aspiring actors, The Craft of Comedy is witty and exceptionally astute. In a series of letters written to a young man eager to learn from her wealth of experience, Seyler draws on her performances in Restoration Comedy, Shakespeare, Wilde, Maugham, Shaw, and Rattigan. The result is a classic work on the art and craft of comedy, as important in its own way as works by Stanislavski, Chekhov, or Gordon Craig.
