

Reading in Four Dimensions

This is a story about the future of publishing. Its a tale of how books are changing the internet, and how the internet changed reading. Its an exploration of digital and print, social writers and readers, a 17th-century blogger and a fake politician from a parallel universe. Its an explanation of why the publishing industry is about to change. This is a story about time. --Andrew Losowsky is the Books Editor of The Huffington Post
