

Barking Up The Right Tree! Volume 2

Arguably one of the worlds first blogs, Barking Up The Right Tree! is both a collection of funny stories and an exploration into the use of the Internet for print publication. Delivered via Hewlett-Packards innovative (and short-lived) HP Instant-Delivery service, these tales of city dwellers relocated to the Oregon forest generate smiles and laughter through both text and imagery. This is over 30 of the 3-page installments of the Barking Up The Right Tree! column. Includes the following stories: Why A Duck - Nov 27, 2000 Hay!
