

Womans work;: Being an inquiry and an assumption,

Ernest Thompson Seton he says that long ago he came to the place where the road he was traveling divided. One branch was a most alluring way broad and gently sloping, cool and shadowy, with flowers and ferns, gay with butterflies and birds of bright plumage. This was the road of I magination. The other branch, which was the one he chose for himself, was narrow and difficult, an ever upward climb, endlessly leading on and on. This was the road of Truth. It is the greatest of all pleasures to please.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
